

August ASCCC OERI Newsletter

Welcome Back!

The ASCCC OERI has been busy over the summer and we're looking forward to sharing our work with you. Our Canvas site has been redesigned and new resources have been added. We'll soon be able to share some of the new OER developed by your colleagues and we are planning discipline-specific convenings to focus on OER development in late October. If you are not presently on your discipline's list-serve, be sure to sign up to ensure you don't miss anything. In addition to wanting to ensure you know what is happening, we will also be looking for reviewers as funded OER work is completed.

How do we describe that course section's required materials? Is the section ZTC, OER, no-cost, all of the above, none of the above - and does it really matter? Join us for a lively discussion of definitions, effective and not-so-effective practices, and the implementation of SB 1359. We hope you're free for our no-cost conversation.

September 12 - OER/ZTC, Equity, and Beyond – 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. REGISTER NOW

While it is easy to see the link between no-cost resources and achieving your equity goals, how do you take this concept to the next level and connect it to other college initiatives and make this understanding a part of your college culture? What are the fundamental connections between your local equity, Open Educational Resources (OER), guided pathways, and Zero Textbook Cost (ZTC) efforts? This webinar will introduce you to resources for training yourself - and your colleagues - to understand and appreciate these important intersections.
