

• ASCCC OERI Newsletter - April 2023 •

It's hard to believe that we are moving into April and either recovering from or planning Spring Break while we continue to face floods, power outages, and landslides. But here we are – looking forward to the end of the term and all that that entails. This month we have some updates regarding the Instructional Materials Task Force, the ASCCC OERI IDEA Framework, and the outcomes of our Request for Proposals V.

• Instructional Materials Task Force Update •

The task force - originally announced as a ZTC (zero-textbook-cost) Taskforce by the California Community Colleges Chancellor's Office - is now the "Equitable Student Experience: Burden-Free Instructional Materials Task Force" (IMTF). The specific charge to the task force can be found in the July 29, 2022 "Zero Textbook Cost Program – Overview and Guidance" memo. The IMTF has met three times with a fourth meeting scheduled for late April. This task force is working on recommendations related to not only eliminating the costs of textbooks and supplemental materials for students (the focus of ZTC efforts), but also the costs of other supplies that are not a component of the ZTC work.

The IMTF has discussed approaches to decreasing existing supply costs, both costs currently covered by colleges as a matter of practice and costs that are passed on to students with a goal of both making more funds available to colleges to cover supply costs and minimizing those expenses for students and, potentially, colleges. The IMTF is also tasked with making recommendations on "baseline policies and regulations that strengthen equitable access to required instructional materials" and "for establishing a robust and sustained open educational resource support infrastructure." The IMTF is scheduled to conclude its work and forward recommendations to the Board of Governors in May.

• ASCCC OERI IDEA Framework 2.0 •

To support faculty as they implement a culturally responsive and anti-racist pedagogy and in response to Resolution 09.05 adopted in Spring 2021 (Developing an Anti-Racism, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Curriculum Audit Process), the Academic Senate for California Community Colleges Open Educational Resources Initiative (ASCCC OERI), was tasked with the development of:

- a process and review framework to evaluate existing open educational resources to ensure that ASCCC OERI-supported open educational resources are inclusive, diverse, equitable, and anti-racist (IDEA).
- a curriculum audit process and review framework to assess instructional materials for equity, inclusiveness, diversity, and anti-racism and make the process and framework available for local consideration, modification, and implementation.

To meet these outcomes, the OERI developed the ASCCC OERI Inclusion, Diversity, Equity, and Anti-Racism (IDEA) Framework. The Framework has been reviewed and revised since it was first introduced. You can access the Framework, read about its history, and our efforts to improved it on the ASCCC OERI IDEA Framework website (tinyurl.com/OERI-IDEA). The Framework is also available in Canvas. As the Framework is intended to be a living document, your review and feedback would be appreciated. It is the OERI's goal to ensure the Framework is a useful resource.
