ADAPT Level 4 – Creating and Using Question Banks in ADAPT

After you've learned to create activities in ADAPT, how do you deploy those activities within a course so that each student receives a randomized selection of activities? In other words, how do you organize your ADAPT activities into questions banks that can then populate your assessments? Join us to learn how to do this in ADAPT.

• All About LibreTexts •

Did you miss this year's annual LibreFest workshop? Want to learn more about the LibreTexts open homework and assessment platform, ADAPT? Join us virtually August 6, 2024, before the start of the Cal OER conference, and get an in-depth look at how the ADAPT platform promises to change the landscape of online homework forever. You will learn how to: build a course, make assignments, add questions to assignments, cloning an assignment, building learning trees, and more.

ADAPT is currently free for all California educators thanks to a grant from the California Education Learning Lab \(CELL\).

Registration for this free workshop requires that you have a LibreTexts account. Consequently, the registration link will require you to log into LibreOne or create a new account. Register for August 6 LibreTexts workshop.

• Cal OER 2024 – Register Today •

The fourth annual Cal OER Conference will be held virtually on August 7 – 8, 2024. This event is open to everyone, so we hope you will attend and consider presenting. The theme for the 2024 conference is Responsive Pedagogy: Extending Local Innovation to Advance Global Impact.

Cal OER focuses on OER efforts and impact, broadly defined, across the state of California and especially across the state's three public higher education systems, the California Community Colleges, the California State University, and the University of California.

• 2024 – 2025 OER Liaisons •

Your local OER Liaison is appointed by your academic senate president. If you are not sure who that is at your college, please access the ASCCC Directory to see if your college had a Liaison for this past academic year. While most colleges do have someone in place, vacancies can occur. If your college needs an OER Liaison and you are interested in learning more about the OER Liaison role, please see the OER Liaison section on the OERI website.
